What are my obligations?

- At the beginning of the period of insurance or when making changes to your policy, you must give complete and accurate answers to any questions you are asked relating to the insurance.
- You must tell us or your broker of you becoming aware of any inaccuracies or changes in the information you have provided to us, whether happening before or during the period of insurance.
- You must tell us or your broker if the property is going to become unoccupied for any period over 60 days, regularly become unoccupied for periods, is to be let, sublet or if you take in lodgers.
- You must tell us or your insurance broker if your home is going to be used for short periods each week or as a holiday home.
- You must tell us or your insurance broker if work is to be done on your home which is not routine repair, maintenance or decoration, for example any structural alteration or extension to your home.
- You must tell us or your insurance broker if you or any member of your family receives a conviction for any offence except for driving.
- You must take all reasonable steps to prevent loss, damage or an accident and keep the buildings in a good state of repair.
- You must tell us about any event which might lead to a claim as soon as possible.
- When we are notified of a change or of any planned structural work we will tell you if this affects your policy. For example we may amend the terms of your policy or require you to pay an additional premium. In certain circumstances we may cancel your policy in accordance with the "Cancelling This Insurance" section of the policy wording.

Failure to meet your obligations could result in a claim being rejected, a reduction in the amount we pay or the cancellation of your policy.

When and how do I pay?

You will be required to pay as soon as you proceed with cover or if it is a renewal then on or before your renewal date to maintain continuous cover. If however you use an insurance broker they will provide you with information of when and how to pay them. We also operate an interest free 0% direct debit facility so can spread the cost of the premium over 12 months, full details of this facility can be found on our website or from your insurance broker.

When does the cover start and end?

This insurance is for a 12 month period and the start and end date of the cover are specified in your policy schedule.

How do I cancel the policy?

You can cancel this insurance at any time by contacting your broker. After the 14 day cooling off period, provided you have not made a claim, you will be entitled to a refund of any premium paid, subject to a deduction for any time for which you have been covered, the administrative cost of providing the insurance and our standard cancellation fee.
